Several prominent radicals of this city publicly announce that they will not vote for Captain Settle for Governor.

The authorities have let up on Let, let him have ten days to let himself out of the county. Let let Raleigh alone.

The people are so crazy about money that you can't get a man to take a loan of $100 on less than 90 days without interest.

At a meeting of the Raleigh Light Infantry held last night they decided on Milburn as the place to celebrate their second anniversary which comes off next Friday, the 26th inst.

The young man from the country who today deposited his postal card in the letter box at the post office with two one cent stamps on it remarks that it was so much more convenient than sending an envelope, as his correspondence was all short.

Rev. Dr. C. R. Vaughan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church left on the 8:30 p. m. train yesterday to visit his friends in Charlotte county Va. from which place he goes to the Red Sulphur Springs in Monroe county Va. He will be absent about four or five weeks.

Hon. D. G. Fowle left for Nash county yesterday on the 3:30 p. m. train. He will speak at Parnell's to-morrow. We see the expectations of our Eastern friends are very high, they will not be disappointed.

Off to the Centennial—Peace Institute. Capt. J. B. Lacy, of this place, left Raleigh yesterday on a tour to the Centennial at some of the chief places of attraction in the Northern States. Just here it will not be amiss to say that in this, the Centennial year of our nation's history, while we can point with pride to the advantages and blessings that we as a nation enjoy, especially to the educational interest of our country, Peace Institute looms up as an institution of learning second to none in this country. With Seminars of learning like this one in our midst, our fair daughters of the Sunny South will always retain the proud position they now occupy, and which has made them pre-eminent for moral culture, intelligence and refinement. We wish this school the success it so richly deserves.

N. C. State Dental Association. The time of holding the meeting of the N. C. State Dental Association has been changed to Tuesday September the 12th, at Greensboro. All the profession are invited to attend.

Postoffice Wanted.

B. F. the war there was a post-office at Rodger's Cross Roads in Barton's Creek Township in this county but was closed when the war ended, and since then has not been reopened, causing a great deal of trouble and inconvenience to the people living in that Township, compelling them to go as far as seven, ten and fifteen miles for their mail. Sometime during the month of last February, the people of that township got up a petition asking the re-opening of the office at Rodger's Cross Roads, and also to open one at Hutchinson's Store, ten miles from Raleigh. These two offices would be on the route to New Light Postoffice, a distance of twenty-two miles from Raleigh. Going east from Raleigh there is no post-office after leaving Dayton, making a distance from that office to Forestville twenty miles. The petition was sent to our representative in Congress, Hon. J. J. Davis, but has not been heard from, and fears are entertained that he never received it. The two offices above named, are greatly needed by the people, and we hope soon to hear that they have been established.

C., son of the efficient and courteous superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, we learn that the wife of Dr. Penix (who shot himself some time ago) was shot through the arm last night about 12 o'clock. The shot was fired through the window by some one unknown.

Primrose, the efficient and much loved Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School, gave a water melon treat to the scholars, in the yard of the church. There was quite a large attendance, and all enjoyed themselves most happily for about two hours.

He died yesterday morning, aged about 31 years, his funeral took place from the Salisbury street Baptist Church yesterday afternoon.

To Publishers. A steady, sober, industrious, unmarried man, having an experience of ten years in every department of the newspaper business, desires a position as foreman of some office in the State; one in the Mountain districts preferred. Compensated to take charge of the editorial columns in the absence of the editor. Salary not so much an object as an opportunity of becoming established in some thriving town. Address "INDUSTRY," Raleigh, N. C.

NEWS FROM VANCE.

South Carolinians Welcome North Carolina Standard Bearer—Music and Banners.

(Special Correspondence of the News.) SPARTANBURG, S. C. July 24, '76.

We arrived at this point at 5 p. m. this morning, on reaching the city which was our surprise to see a four horse team drive up with banners flying and music playing, we could not understand it at first but soon learned that it was the Spartanburg Brass Band, on their way to Rutherford, N. C., a point 35 miles from here, to give their greetings to N. C. in honor of her noble and loved Vance who meets Captain Settle to-morrow before the people of Rutherford county.

Vance is greeted all along the route with great enthusiasm. So the good work goes on, and in our heart of hearts we think the South Carolina people for this expulsion of their good will.

We take a hot ride of 35 miles in a buggy to-day.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Mr. Badger at Pittsboro. PITTSBORO, N. C. July 24, 1876.

To THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS:—Last Saturday according to advertisement, Messrs. Badger and Blaine were on hand to address the people of Pittsboro and surrounding country on the great political issues of the day.

At an early hour the groves around the town were filled with a wide, and all the hard cider wagons were entirely blocked. The conservatives in the meantime had agreed to let the Radicals have full play, and consequently not to grace the occasion with their presence.

When the hour for assembly arrived, the above gentlemen went to the Court House to harangue the multitude, but Mr. B. finding it full of negroes, there being only three or four whites present, said, "I understand that the crowd was not a decent one, and he wouldn't speak. The Republican party about here is composed almost entirely of negroes, and Mr. Badger was a-banned to stand up and address an audience made up exclusively of his own party. Now didn't the white people treat him right?"

If Republican speakers are ashamed to address an assembly made up of those who vote for them, why let them not speak at all. If the white people would adopt this plan occasionally, wouldn't it have a good effect? The darkies about here were considerably chagrined.

Vance and Tilden will carry the day here.

Respectfully, F. W. S.

Radical Delegates and Rogues. To THE EDITORS OF THE NEWS:—I wish to say that Mack Hyatt, (or Blackman), delegate to the Radical Convention, which met in your city, and nominated Captain Settle for Governor, is not the only "black-thorn" from Cumberland" who assisted upon that occasion, and has come to grief by reason of having followed the examples and teachings of the leaders of that corrupt party.

Mich Baldwin, alias H. M. Smith negro in attendance upon that convention, (and as a delegate, I am informed) has been arrested for having with Blackman and others, broken into the store of Mr. E. J. Lilly and stealing therefrom several thousand dollars worth of goods. He had his trunk before three local magistrates and has been bound over for his appearance at next term of Superior Court, in the sum of one hundred dollars. Two magistrates going on his appearance bond, one of whom tried his case. The other being one of the justices who tried the Blackman case.

So you see, we are not only cursed with a gang of radical thieves, but with radical magistrates, who when they try these thieves and are fully satisfied as to their guilt turn the law upon the community against plunder and steal to their heart's content.

"I was in evidence on the trial that Blackman and Baldwin, were both met by two of their "bald" at the depot, on the arrival of the train that brought them from the Raleigh Convention, and by them informed that their stealing had been found out, and that they would doubtless be arrested, which was the case, as Blackman was arrested here a few days afterwards, and Baldwin was arrested in the county of Robeson and brought back to this city, and tried as above. Comment is unnecessary. Will the white men of the State endorse the candidates nominated by a Convention composed in part of delegates of such character? and a party whose law officers protect criminals when caught in the act of robbing the State, and confidently believe that the result of the election in November will be to give us an entirely different state of affairs.

CUMBERLAND.

R. C. Badger in Wake. To THE EDITORS OF THE NEWS:—Madame rumor informs us that there was a big radical speaking (?) in our town last Saturday. We only know it from madame rumor and not from our own knowledge, as we did not attend. The only evidence of the speaking we saw was an extra load of water melons, a keg of hard cider, and a few sable sons of Euphoria in town. One of our colored friends informs us that two clowns of our city were the would be speakers of the occasion. Mr. R. C. Badger, more familiarly known as Roba-oh Dick and a Mr. Blesso. At twelve o'clock, after continual ringing of the Court House bell so we are in a hurry, the speakers, preceded by two Irish publicans, proceeded to the Court room where they found an appreciative audience of about one hundred and fifty blacks and fair whites. Mr. Badger at once came to the conclusion the notice of four weeks had been too short to draw a sufficient crowd for him to unload his batteries upon, and then, to no one's great surprise, he replied to him. It was more than his pride could stand to conceal the way from Raleigh to enlighten the barbarians of Chatham in political matters, and for those barbarians to think it too insignificant an affair to need a reply. His wounded pride moved him to venture on—he wouldn't enlighten them at all! He consoled his sable friends by telling them that he would try it again in September. We admire Mr. Badger's pluck. If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. We hope a longer notice may draw a crowd for him in September, and that much good may result therefrom. Our colored friends are much mortified to think that one hundred and fifty black men made too small a crowd for Mr. Badger to speak to. He should have more care for the feelings of his party friends.

A Flash in the Pan—Badger Completely Badgered. PITTSBORO, N. C. July 24, '76.

To THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS:—"I came, I saw, and I was conquered by the speech of the Hon. Mr. Badger, the revolving aspirant for Judge Settle's old shoes, on Saturday last. After due notice and much talk, there gathered together here on the 23rd about two hundred negroes and six white men, to hear the Hon. Mr. Badger, from Wake. The Court bell rang promptly at the appointed hour, and one hundred negroes and ten white men, (two-thirds of the later Democrats) filed into the Court room to hear the speaking; and what was the result? The speaking was postponed. Because, as Mr. Badger was understood to say afterwards, "the crowd was not respectable enough." De quibus non disputandum, for even that degenerate son of a noble sire could not stomach such a crowd.

Please request Mr. Badger to come to Chatham again. He is a power! One more visit and Chatham is Republican. (2) We will guarantee him, if necessary, a Democratic audience—more palatable to his delicate olfactory—ad, if he will, but bring J. Hayes, McPherson, and the "old" brethren in the back ground, "like a tick-mule in a circus or a spavined night-mare on the edge of a painful dream," he may enter the former.

APETITE A NECESSITY.—Appetite is a necessity. Without it, sufficient food is not received into the stomach either to nourish the system or to give the stimulus to the bowels which the system needs. Both these organs and the liver become torpid in consequence, and the blood grows poor in quality and quantity, and the appetite, therefore, and avoid such results. This is most effectively done with Host's Stomach Bitters, tonic appetizer and liverative without per. It gives not only an unobstructed food, but enables the stomach to digest it, and the liver to secrete bile, and every other concomitant of indigestion, are removed by it, as are also the elements of colic, each erve and fibre of the body is made to sing with health by its use, and it is the leading remedy for its spondency.

WHITE SLAVES.

We direct attention to the communication from Mr. Benjamin Askew, in regard to the hiring of white men and women to negro masters, by the Board of Commissioners of Jones county. Mr. Askew is one of the most prominent and reliable citizens of Jones county. What he says may be implicitly relied upon, as we are informed by those who know him. The Board of Commissioners is Republican—composed of three negroes and two white men. They are the masters of those who are so unfortunately as to become paupers. And they it is who lead white men and white women—the poor, the aged, the blind, the halt, the diseased—to the auction block, and bid them off to negroes!
Is this what Republican domination is to give us in this Centennial year? Are the aged and helpless of our race to become the slaves of the degraded African? Are the descendants of the proud Anglo-Saxon race that rescued this beautiful country from the savage, and with their blood established its independence and made it their own, to be enslaved by Africans?
North Carolinians, ye who hesitate in this crisis as to which side you will take, we direct your attention to Jones county, to those poor helpless people of our own race, who were bid off the auction block by negroes, to see damning fruits of Radical supremacy in your State. If there is manhood in you; if you are worthy the Caucasian blood that flows in your veins; if you are true to the instincts of the Anglo-Saxon race, you can no longer hesitate on which side of the line to step. The time has come when the Anglo-Saxon race of this State must assert its God-given supremacy, and make it impossible that any man or woman of our proud race shall ever bend the neck in slavery to a negro master.

GOLDSBORO CONVENTION.—The Republican Congressional Convention of the Second District meets to-day at Goldsboro. The contest for the nomination will be between Gov. Brogden and John A. Hyman—black against white. The chances seem to be in favor of the dark horse.

THE AMENDMENTS—REPUBLICAN RECORD.

One of the main lines of action on the part of our political adversaries in this campaign is opposition to the Amendments proposed by the recent Constitutional Convention. They manifest the most bitter resistance to their adoption, and denounce the whole batch.
The concluding sentence of the address to the people of North Carolina, by the Republican members of the late Constitutional Convention, expresses in few words the view taken by the Radical demagogues of the work of that body: "We say to the people that the intention and aim of the convention was to enslave you and you are enslaved if you ratify its acts." This hollow protest is issued by about fifty Republicans, including J. W. Alberson, W. H. Wheeler, O. H. Dockery, and I. J. Young—nominees of the Republican party, and now before the people, soliciting their suffrages.

This document makes the broad and almost ludicrous charge that the Convention forged chaos where with to shake the freemen of this State. Uniting a little fact with this fiction, they would tell us that this chain of tyranny, so-called, is composed of exactly thirty links—each one of the proposed amendments being represented by a link.

Now, if we take link by link, proposition by proposition, we may see who did the forging—what delegates voted for and which against. The first amendment, that prohibiting secret political societies, was passed in the Convention with no opposition. On the following, the yeas and nays were not called, indicating little or no opposition on the part of the Republicans.

Ordinances II, relating to concealed weapons; III, relating to the time of assembling of the Legislature; IV, To amend section 4, article 2; V, To amend section 3, article 2; VI, In relation to terms of office for the Senators and members of the General Assembly; VII, In regard to the time of election for members of the General Assembly; X, In relation to the establishment of a Department of Agriculture, Immigration and Statistics; XIV, In regard to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; XVI, Fixing the residence of Judges in judicial districts; XVII, Providing for the election of Justices of the Supreme Court, and of Judges of the Superior Courts; XIX, In regard to vacancies in office; XX, Defining the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace; XXII, Removal of Judges and clerks of courts for inability; XXVIII, Relating to the convict labor; and XXIX, Providing for the call of conventions.

What does this show? That out of the thirty amendments proposed, seventeen—more than half—passed the third and last reading—the test reading—without so much as a call of the yeas and nays; which, as every body knows who is at all conversant with parliamentary usages, is the best indication, the most positive proof, that the minority made no decided opposition, to the changes these amendments propose.

THE UNIVERSITY.

After consultation with the Executive Committee of the State University, Hon. Kemp P. Battle has determined to devote special attention to the organization of the Agricultural Department of the College, for the present. To that end, he left on yesterday to visit the Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Blacksburg, Virginia, which is now in session. As soon as the vacations of the great Northern and Northwestern colleges are over, Mr. Battle will visit them. The Trustees have determined to furnish the best instruction in the department of Agriculture. They are now looking for a man fully versed in Practical Agriculture, Geology, Botany, &c., to take charge of this important department.
Professor Reid, in charge of the Physics and Chemistry Departments, is now recylizing the latest and most improved apparatus for these departments of science; several thousand dollars worth of which he recently purchased from exhibitors at the Centennial, mainly.

ASHAMED OF HIS PARTY.—Our Pittsboro correspondents tell a singular tale of Hon. R. C. Badger and Hon. Eaton Bledsoe, two Radical worthies of this city. They went to harangue the Republicans of Chatham. Finding the Court House packed with negroes, and only a half dozen whites present, they ingloriously beat a retreat. They were ashamed of the crowd! Ashamed of the men whom he would have control this State! We would say to all such, stand by your colors!

HYMAN AND BROGDEN.—We understand that about twenty five negroes from Warren, on their way to Goldsboro, to attend the Congressional Convention to-day, passed through this city yesterday. They were hot for Hyman. They had understood that Brogden was to be nominated; but they were going down to stop that little game.

RADICALISM.

White Men and Women Hired out to Negroes.—The poor, sick, and Afflicted White Paupers of Jones County hired out by the Negro Commissioners of the County to the Negroes.
TRENTON, Jones Co., N. C., July 20, 1876.

EDITOR NEWS:
Dear Sir:—I find by examination of the records and from other sources that at January term 1873 of Commissioners Court of this county, the Mrs. Nancy King (white, and three children) were let out at auction to a negro, who can neither read nor write, at the price of $5.00 per month. At same time Mrs. Lucy Loycey (white) aged and blind, was bid off by another ignorant negro, who can neither read nor write. At April term 1875, Samuel Metts (white and blind) having a wife and several children, was bid off by one of the negro commissioners at $5 per month. At same time a white man named Alfred Davis was bid off by another negro Commissioner at $4 per month. At April term 1876, Samuel Metts, the blind white man named above was bid off by an ignorant negro at $15.00 per month. At same time Alfred Davis was bid off by a negro at $5.75 per month. There were many others bid for by negroes but not bid off by them. The Board of County Commissioners consist of three negroes and two white radicals.
If you need any more testimony to corroborate the facts above stated it can be procured by scores of witnesses. Very Respectfully,
BENJAMIN ASKEW.

For the News.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

A flower grows from the snow in the California mountains, 7,000 feet above the sea. It is purple.

Mobile Register: It is generally conceded that Joe Vance will beat Judge Settle, the Radical candidate for Governor of North Carolina.

A man at Port Jervis, N. Y., waged to fight a Bull Dog on his hands and knees. The quag uped had to be shot while engaged in the contest, and the human brute died of hydrophobia.

Danville Times: Settle is beyond doubt the ablest and most respectable Confederate officer who, after the war, took sides with the negroes. By so doing he got into clover at once, and has been luxuriating on the public paper since.

Edwin Booth, the well-known tragedian, has been discharged from bankruptcy, his creditors having facilitated the happy issue of his financial difficulties by the assignment of the larger part of their claims to his friends, in whose hands they are no longer claims.

On Wednesday morning, the 19th inst., Dr. E. D. Barnes, formerly of this county, led to the hymenal altar, one of Edgecombe's fairest and loveliest daughters in the person of Miss Lena R. Baker. The interesting ceremony took place at the Episcopal church, the Rev. Dr. Cheshire officiating.

Petersburg Index-Appel: Billy Smith, the Radical candidate for Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina got his title of Bloodhound Billy by hunting conscripts and deserters during the war with bloodhounds. Billy will have to use his hounds to trail up any white votes he will get in the canvass.

As to General M. C. Butler's responsibility in the Hamburg riot, he says: "I was not the leader of this body of infuriated men. I was there in the line of my profession. The collision was a sort of spontaneous combustion. I thought I saw it approaching, and did all that any human being could be expected to do to prevent it."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Robert Lincoln, only surviving son of the late President, has declared his intention to support Tilden.

"Neuralgia" is the latest brand of whisky which President Grant drinks.—It is said to be seriously effecting his head.

New York Sun: The man whom the democracy of New York should imperatively nominate for governor is named Horatio Seymour.

Waterston of the Louisville Courier Journal has been nominated for Congress for the Louisville Ky., District.—The nomination is equivalent to an election.

New York Tribune: The Republican party cannot carry New York with Grantism! It cannot win in Connecticut, unless with the aid of all that reform element which was justly outraged by Mr. Jewell's removal.

Carl Schurz seems to have been animated by that fine old spirit, which teaches the tramp who has been subsisting upon the perfumes from a kitchen window to jump in and take his chances the first time the door opens.—Brooklyn Argus (Republican).

St. Louis Times: The battle in Ohio is becoming unexpectedly exciting. With Judge Stallo, Fred. Hassaurek and General Brinkerhoff coming to the front of the Tilden ranks, and plunging in for an aggressive campaign, it is noticeable that even Ohio is to be contested step by step for October. All of these able liberal leaders supported Hayes for governor last fall against Allen.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Charlotte Observer: Three Vance Clubs were organized in the county yesterday; one at Sharon, another at Providence, and the third at Mallard Creek.

Charlotte Observer: Report says that Gen. John Quincy Adams Bryant, of Wilkes, was at the tax gathering at Union Grove Township, Iredell county, last Thursday. Mr. A. C. Sharpe, one of the candidates of the House, while making a speech, referred to the Holden-Kirk war, and used the expression "Kirk's cut-throats." This was too much for John Quincy Adams, and he drew a pistol. Mr. Sharpe got a rock and journeyed for the General, but Tom Cooper stepped in and prevented Mr. Sharpe from breaking the head of the man with the big name and title.

Grant to be Propagated.

[New York Sun.]

There is a good deal of method in Grant's madness. He has sukked and fussed over since the Commencement (Convent), but especially since the publication of the letter of acceptance. The managers insisted upon making a part of it so emphatic as to offend Grant's pride. Other causes have loosened his tongue, and he has spoken with the utmost freedom of the gross ingratitude of the South, which he says was inspired by disappointed enemies.

But while indulging in this sort of comment, and sometimes when he could not be held to strict account for his utterances, he never lost sight of the effect to be produced on the candidate and his conscience-keepers by such free speech. He knows what power the Administration can exert through its mighty magazine and a disciplined army of a hundred thousand officers and soldiers by an active and passive part in the coming campaign. He knows that Grant and his friends should realize the value of this influence, and be guided accordingly in making advances to him.

Having held the highest and best offices that the country could confer since the close of the civil war; having tasted the sweets of great pay and little service, it goes hard with Grant to confront exclusion from those honors and emoluments, and to return to private life, for which he has no taste or inclination. He likes the excitement of public life, enjoys its honors and adulation, and especially loves the large emoluments and opportunities afforded by official station.

By standing back and even threatening to resign, he has brought the party leaders who are conducting the Hayes campaign to his feet. A perfect understanding is on to be effected between the high contracting parties, by which Grant is to throw the whole force of the Administration into the canvass, repeat the old game in the South, and follow Morton's lead in an aggressive, tactical policy, flamed by outrages manufactured to order or by bloodshed incited by financial malignity. The programme is already marked out, and was freshened by Morton in the recent debate with Merrimon.

The consideration to be given to Grant for this service depends necessarily upon success, which will of course intensify his zeal and do almost all his effort. It is proposed, if Hayes should be elected, and the House of Representatives be carried by the Republicans to divide the Union into two military districts, with the rank and pay of General for the one and Sherman for the other. This plan, though less than the request of what Grant would wish to divide, if the old game is to be repeated, it is a compromise, and is a satisfactory and sensible view of his claims. He is to be given the rank of Major-General, and the salary of $12,000 per annum, and the country may look forward to the most violent political campaign that has ever been witnessed.

The North Carolina Ticket.

[North Carolina Ticket.]

We have elsewhere the names of the distinguished gentlemen who are running on the State Ticket of our party in North Carolina, in order that our numerous readers in that State may see, from day to day, what manner of men they are to vote for. The effect of this quiet appeal will be to bring a comparison between our leaders and those on the other side. The ticket, from head to foot, from plume to spur, is worthy the respect of all classes, and no man can truthfully regard it as a party ticket. The worth of the ticket, the integrity, the worth, or the ability of the candidates. They have stood by their own people, and have come to desert their colors though they knew that they had to go over into the camp of the enemy to make a fortune obedient to their own greed. They have struggled against oppression, and all the various slaves in which their bitter cup has been pressed to the lips of Carolinians, and they are an honor to that ancient Commonwealth. This description of the men whose names adorn the ticket of our party in the Old North State will be recognized as just and faithful to the originals by all candid men, and we can confidently expect the ticket to be voted into office by 20,000 majority at the approaching election.

Sitting Bull.

Sitting Bull may be horse-thief, carter, and murderer, but Spotted Tail has his good points. He loved his daughter and cherished her memory. She was the first born and the best beloved. She fell in love with a young officer at Fort Laramie, and died of a broken heart eight years ago. Her influence over her father was so overwhelming that he vowed on her death-bed that he would make peace with the whites, since it was her wish, and would never again take up arms against them. When the treaty was made he asked to have the coffin containing her remains brought into the council in order that her spirit might witness the fulfillment of the vow. All the years the old Chief has yearned to have her grave near his wigwam and his people with her remains. He has been so afflicted by the loss of his daughter that he has placed in a box upon four posts in accordance with the Indian custom. The burial service of the Episcopal Church was read, a sermon in the Dakota language was preached by the chaplain and the box was lowered into the grave in the cemetery near the Agency.

CHIEF GAS. The Charlots (N. C.) Gas Company, that the Centennial Gaslight Company of that city has reduced the price of gas to the city and private consumers to the lowest point, a fact which ought to be a source of satisfaction to the people. They have cut in North Carolina quite accessible. —Balt. Sun.

THE HAMBURG LETTER FROM GENERAL M. C. BUTLER.

General M. C. Butler, who is charged with having led the white in their attack upon the negroes at Hamburg, S. C., has written a letter to the Charleston Journal of Commerce defending his course on that occasion, and concluding as follows:

"I invite a faithful investigation, and am prepared to submit to the arbitrament of the law; not such a feeling, as far as I am concerned, to learn of every white man who in any degree connected with the affair. The white men of this country have some rights about them. They have no other feeling for them. Kindness and pity in the face of the war, and pity that they will be made to feel, to be made to feel of bad mischievous, designing white men and mulattoes. So long as they obey the laws, every honor to them of the country will feel bound to protect and encourage them in happiness and prosperity."

Tom Settle, the Radical candidate for Governor, was an original secessionist. He did all he could to bring on the war, and persuaded his neighbors and friends to go with him in the army. After he had induced them to volunteer under his flag, he left them in the battle field, and sought safety for himself behind a civil office. When the war was over he deserted his state and his color, and joined in with negroes and carpet baggers to rule and rule North Carolina. —Wilson Advance.

The present is the fourth invasion of the Big Horn country by United States troops. General Connor went there in 1865, and destroyed a village of hostile Cheyennes and Arapahos. In 1866 General Carrington entered the field, and left it with the Indians in charge; and in March last, Crook led an expedition thither, which did no good practical thing.

A $200,000 HOTEL.

What Dr. Pierce is Doing—An Important Enterprise.

We learn that Dr. R. V. Pierce, proprietor of the "World's Dispensary," in this city has perfected the purchase of a large lot of land, on which he proposes to erect a large hotel for the accommodation of his numerous patients, coming thither from all points of the compass. The land purchased by the enterprising Doctor is 24 feet front on Prospect Avenue, 332 feet; also an adjoining lot extending from the above to Connecticut street. The lot is one of our extensive system of public parks, fronts the Island beautiful Prospect Park, is but a short distance from the "City Hall" in one direction, and the "Lake Front" in the other. The site selected is a fine one, being both beautiful and healthy, is one of the highest portions of our city, easily accessible, yet sufficiently retired to secure quiet and commands a pleasant view of the lake and river, as well as of the surrounding city and country. We understand that it is the intention of Dr. Pierce to erect a hotel at the cost of at least two hundred thousand dollars, where those who come to enjoy the benefit of his treatment may find all the comforts and accommodations under one roof, and of being scattered over the city as at present. We are further given to understand that our architect is to be invited to submit plans for the proposed structure without delay. —Buffalo Express.

CONGRESS.

Reports of Committees—Platte vs. Goode—Lamar to the Front on Personal Explanation—Impeachment Resumed, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The House Bill reported by Mr. Bland, of Missouri, from the Committee on Mines and Mining to utilize the product of gold and silver mines came up for consideration in the morning hour.

Kasson, of Iowa, made the point of order that the bill must first be considered in the Committee of the Whole.

The discussion of this point of order was continued throughout the morning session, that being one way of defeating the bill. At the expiration of the morning hour the bill went over.

The Naval Committee report was made this order for Friday with six hours debate equally divided.

The case of Platte vs. Goode was taken up without action.

The floor was yielded to Lamar, of Mississippi, who rose to a personal explanation, and quoted from a communication in the Washington Republican, charging him with having made speeches at Aberdeen and Seaboard, totally at variance with the speech which he made at Jackson.

The communication stated that he had in those speeches spoken in a laudatory manner of the white line policy. He appealed to his colleague (Singleton) who had heard his speech at Seaboard, as to what was the tone of it.

Mr. Singleton, of Mississippi, bore testimony to the fact that the speech made by Mr. Lamar at Jackson was directly against what was termed the white line policy, and there was nothing in it which tended to encourage ill-feeling between the races. The article therefore did him gross injustice.

Mr. Lamar expressed his thanks to Mr. Singleton and went on to say that his speech at Aberdeen was also in favor of the co-ordination of races and against the supremacy or subordination of any one race. He fortified his position on that point by telegrams from W. W. Troop, and Reuben Davis, formerly a representative from Mississippi. As to the allegation that he had in a speech made by him after his election to the Senate, He apologized for his eulogy on Chas. Sumner. He denied that there was any truth in Mr. Neve in the slightest instance nor in the least particular had he uttered in that speech. He called upon his Republican colleague, Wells, to speak as to the character of his speeches during the canvass. Wells, of Miss., said that he had heard Mr. Lamar's speech at Holy Springs, in which speech he invited the people to throw aside all prejudices of race and to seize the government jointly and administer it in the interest of the public welfare. Lamar in conclusion apologized to the House, and said he would not have brought the matter to its attention on his own account, and had only done so on account of the interests that were struck at through him.

Mr. Hall, of Maine, intimated that he shared somewhat in the general suspicion that the utterance of such sentiments as Mr. Lamar had proclaimed in the House was safer here than elsewhere and he called his attention to the characterization of his Aberdeen speech by his friend, the editor of the Vicksburg Herald, as an eloquent Democratic speech, in which he had declared in many, ringing tones that at the contest involved the supremacy of the unconquered and unconquerable Saxon race.

Lamar explained the sense and connection in which he had used that phrase and said that the editor of the Vicksburg Herald had entirely misunderstood his meaning. As to the gentleman's (Hall's) other suggestion, he said that there was nothing in his character or relations which justified that gentleman's interposition in the matter. (Applause on the Democratic side).

The discussion of the contested election case was then resumed but was not finished.

Mr. Hurlbut, of Illinois, from the Committee on Military Affairs reported back the resolution directing the Secretary of War not to issue to the Northwestern Indians the special patent cartridges which are required for the arms used by them. Adopted. Adjourned.

A Democratic caucus will be held on Thursday evening.

Senate—Gordon introduced a bill to establish a competent and non-partisan revenue corps. Referred to the Committee on Civil Service.

Mr. Hamlin called up House bill to amend certain sections of the Post Office appropriation bill of June 23, 1874, and section 3,954 of the Revised Statutes in regard to straw-bids. Passed.

The impeachment was resumed. Carpenter, by unanimous consent, was allowed to stand at the desk occupied by him when Senator, that he might be better heard. Mr. Car-enter will continue the argument to-morrow.

Legislative resumé. Mr. Wright moved to take up the bill to pay the awards of the Southern Claims Commission, but yielded the River and Harbor bill before reaching a vote. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Legislative Conference—Banking and Currency—Republicans Causing Delay—No Adjournment until September—Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The legislative conference had another meeting, statistics for the details of a bill on the new basis which is claimed will certainly lead to an arrangement coming in rapidly. The result of this bill will save the difficulties in the remaining appropriation bills. Four or five days of preliminary work are required.

The Banking and Currency Committee had another fruitless discussion. Gibson and Wike remain firm in opposition to simple repeal. In the House the Republicans are still pursuing tactics for delay. The prospects are not considered good for an adjournment before September.

In the Senate the impeachment trial was resumed and Carpenter of council for accused is speaking.

The Naval Committee will give Secretary Robeson another opportunity for his defence as to the conclusions reached in relation to his transactions with Jay Cooke & Co. The hearing will be private.

Lieutenant James A. Buchanan, now at Memphis as signal officer, is ordered to assume charge of the construction and operation telegraph lines, ordered by the Government in Texas and the Indian Territory, with headquarters at Denison.

THAT EXTRADITION CASE.

No Negotiations Between Lord Derby and Mr. Pierrepont.

LONDON, July 25.—The agent of the associated press has had another interview with U. S. Minister Edwards Pierrepont in reference to the extradition question. Mr. Pierrepont denied that negotiations are progressing between Lord Derby and himself, and said the U. S. took the view that Great Britain's action broke the treaty of 1842—President Grant's message was substantially based upon that assumption, and he relegated the question to Congress. Great Britain, on the contrary, contends that the treaty is unbroken, and that her action is justified by its provisions until this conflict of opinion is removed. The negotiations are unlikely to make any progress but whatever steps are taken must necessarily proceed to or from Washington. What if any thing Lord Derby may have received from Sir Edward Thornton on the subject, Minister Pierrepont said he was not informed. Possibly instructions are now on the way to him Pierrepont of which Lord Derby may have notice but he himself is undecided thereof. The agent asked Mr. Pierrepont what Lord Derby meant by saying that he hoped to establish a provisional arrangement to tide over the possibility of lengthy negotiations to which he replied, I was in the House of Lords and heard that remark, and think I know what Lord Derby meant, but that is for him to explain for me; but I deny that I am a party to any negotiation. Of course, I cannot say what may be passing between London and Washington.

Negotiations to be Renewed—Rascals to be Checked.

I think if the negotiations are likely to last some time we ought to endeavor to establish a provisional arrangement, which will prevent rascals from benefiting themselves by falling out with honest men."

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE OLD NORTH STATE

Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

PREPARED BY C. G. LANIER.

HICKRY, N. C.

In offering to the public for their use as a relief for Old North State Vegetable Stomach Bitters.

I feel no hesitancy in saying this is the purest and best article ever offered them. I warrant each bottle to contain 30 chemical whistles—nothing but the best vegetable preparation. (See recommendation of physicians.) and the purest tonic in the world.

In preparing this excellent tonic I have spared no pains or cost to make it just what I recommend it to be.

The Very Best Tonic ever offered to Invalids and Others and without the usual cry of "Beware of Home Enticement," I would say to all suffering—Thirst, indigestion, the bilious and wormish humors, and all other ailments, would be "all cured" and try to feel the difference.

THE OLD NORTH STATE BITTERS, and if then you will say I have not been deceived by its name. I will return it to you such their name.

OLD NORTH STATE BITTERS cures all the diseases of the Blood, Gravel, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Colic, Pain of the Stomach and Bowels, and is peculiarly efficacious in all ordinary cases of Indigestion, Biliousness, and Biliousness.

It cures Biliousness, indigestion, acute or chronic, General Bile, indigestion, want of assimilation, and all other ailments of the Blood, and is a most valuable tonic.
